PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint William Browne, Esquire, to be Governor and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Bermuda or Somers Islands in America, he this Day in Council took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations.

This Day the Count de Pignatelli, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had his Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

And afterwards the Prince de Caramanico, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from His Sicilian Majesty, had his first Private Audience to deliver his Credentials.

To which they were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hillsborough, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knight, Master of the Ceremonies.

St. James's, May 18.

THE following Intelligence was this Day received from Bombay, dated January 11, 1781.

That it having been resolved to lay Siege to Basan, on the Coast of Malabar, General Goddard, with the Forces under his Command, with great Difficulty compleated his March from Surat, so as to arrive before the Place on the 13th of November, where he was joined by Reinforcements and Stores from Bombay. The General, finding it very strong, and defended by a numerous Garrison, under the Command of Visagee Punt, determined to carry on his Operations with Regularity and Precaution. On the 28th in the Morning, he had compleated a Battery of Six Guns and Six Mortars, within 900 Yards of the Place, and, under Cover of the Fire, carried on his Approaches to the Spot where he erected the Grand Battery of Nine Twenty-four Pounders, which was opened the 9th of December in the Morning, within 500 Yards of the Wall; besides which, a Battery of 20 Mortars, of different Sizes, was opened upon one of the Flanks of the Parapet. These were served with such Effect that, on the 10th in the Morning, a practicable Breach being nearly compleated, a Message was sent from the Fort, offering to surrender; and, after some Demur on the Part of the Enemy, which obliged the General to renew the Fire from the Batteries, the Place surrendered the next Day at Discretion. The Garrison marched out, and laid down their Arms in Front of the Fort, being allowed only to carry away their own private Effects. It adds greatly to the Satisfaction which this important Acquisition gives, that the Loss we sustained is very small, One Officer only, Lieutenant Sir John James Gordon, who, having been wounded, is since dead, and about Twelve Men killed and wounded, of whom Four only were Europeans. A considerable Quantity of Ammunition was found in the Fort, Two Hundred and Twenty Pieces of Cannon, and Ten Brass Mortars, of which Nineteen Pieces of Brass Cannon, several of a very large Calibre, One Hundred and Twenty-eight Pieces of the Iron Ordnance, and all the Mortars, have been reported serviceable.
